

General Rules & Conditions

1. Forward advancement in the alleyway begins at the initiation of the run. Riders may not ask or allow horses to willingly circle, back up, or fail to continue forward advancement while in the alleyway. The only exception will be if the gate attendant or other outside unexpected entity impedes forward advancement prior to the run commencing. In this instance, the forward advancement ruling will be dismissed. Breeders Challenge reserves the right to review and enforce the final ruling should an advancement be questioned.

2. Rider may not school on a horse during a run. If a rider circles a barrel more than once, they will be disqualified and fined $200.00. If the rider breaks pattern, a no time will be enforced.

3. Members are expected to always conduct themselves in a courteous manner at all times. The Breeders Challenge reserves the right to refuse service or draw-out any rider for inappropriate conduct, conflicts with management, or any other disputes that cannot be settled prior to an event.

4. There will be zero tolerance for animal abuse of any kind. Excessive whipping, force, use of shock devices, or blood drawn will result in disqualification and banning of the rider from the active event and future events. Failure to provide horse/s with a clean, properly bedded stall, withdrawal of food or water will not be tolerated. This includes any and all activity while at a Breeders Challenge sanctioned event or the Finale.

5. A re-run will be granted if the timer fails to clock the run. The rider will be given the opportunity to an immediate re-run at the end of the next drag, or a re-run at the end of the race following a drag. The re-run will be considered a clean slate run and all applicable race rules will be applied. If a rider knocks a barrel over during their run and they keep all three barrels standing during the re-run, the knocked over barrel will not apply to the re-run.

6. If a rider knocks a barrel over, a +5 seconds will automatically be applied for each barrel knocked over. Hit barrels will not be considered a “NT” no time, all times will count so long as the pattern is not broken.

7. Negative, slanderous, or inappropriate content on social media outlets, public forums, or any other form of outreach will not be tolerated. Specific or non-specific use of The Breeders Challenge are to be included. Members in violation will be removed from the program temporarily or permanently per the discretion of The Breeders Challenge with no associated refund. Members are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner in regards to The Breeders Challenge. Should deemed inappropriate conduct commence following a private written statement made by The Breeders Challenge to the member in question, further legal action may take place at the discretion of The Breeders Challenge. As Riders do not receive any monetary compensation for competition with The Breeders Challenge, should such conduct ensue, the penalized parties will be the Owner of the horse.

8. Each run will be clocked individually toward a single payout or average payout depending upon the entered race. Runs may be rolled from one division to another, entry must be received and paid prior to run in order to be eligible for any rollovers.

9. Riders must be checked in the drag before they run. A 3-2-1 call will occur at the discretion of the announcer to draw out a team. If a rider is drawn out, they will receive a no time and forfeit inclusion in the average.

10. Dress Code: Long Sleeve Shirt, Full Length Pants, Western Boots, Helmet, or Western Hat.

11. A current coggins and health certificate must accompany each horse entered for a race. Members agree to comply with the general requests, rules, and health requirements of the venue and state regulations.

12. By payment of entry into the Breeders Challenge Qualifier/s, Challenger Event/s, or Finale, riders and horse owners grant permission to the rights of their image, likeness and sound of their voices as recorded on audio or video tape without payment or any other notice or consideration. These images may be edited, copied, exhibited, published or distributed and riders and owners waive the right to inspect or approve the finished product wherein their likenesses appears. Additionally, riders and owners waive any right to royalties or other compensation arising or related to the use of an image or recording. Material may be used for diverse promotional and educational purposes within an unrestricted geographical area.

13. In order for a horse to receive any form of payout at the Qualifier Level, Semi Finals Level, or Finale Level they must past the eye entering the arena and pass the eye leaving the arena. Failure to do so will forfeit any form of awards presentation and monetary payout to Owner, Stallion Owner, and Nominator.

14. Qualifier advancements of horses due to a scratch will be carried out thru the discretion of The Breeders Challenge Management.

15. Finalist advancements of horses due to a scratch following the draw party will be carried out thru 1 hour preceding the start time of race. The draw position will be automatically assigned to the horse moving into the scratched horses position.

16. Vitrified Embryos sired by an enrolled stallion the year of vitrification will be honored for foal enrollment into the program for up to 2 years beyond the stallions removal from the program.

Written statements specifying details of the embryo will be required:

- a. Stallion Owner

FUTURITY CONDITIONS

The Breeders Challenge will host Qualifier Races advancing 20 teams per qualifier to the end of year Breeders Challenge Semi Finals, and 30 advancing teams to the Breeders Challenge Finale.

Qualifier Races

1. The payout will be 1D / 2D average paying 10 holes deep in each D. The 2D will be a full second split. The aggregate will pay 70% of the 80% payout with 60% paying to the 1D and 40% paying to the 2D.

- a. Go Round 1 – the fastest 10 teams will advance to The Breeders Challenge Semi Finals. Go Round will pay 5 holes deep at 15% of the 80% payout.
- b. Go Round 2 – the fastest 10 teams will advance to The Breeders Challenge Semi Finals. Go Round will pay 5 holes deep at 15% of the 80% payout.

2. Should a team qualify in each Go Round, their slowest advancing time will be dropped and the next fastest team will qualify for The Breeders Challenge Semi Finals. Should a team have qualified at a previous qualifier, they will be ineligible to secure a qualification spot on the same horse at a later qualifier.

3. Offspring that are 4 or 5 years of age may compete. A copy of the offspring registration papers including the backside must be on file with The Breeders Challenge prior to race entry. All AQHA and APHA offspring must be registered to compete. In the event enrolled offspring outside of AQHA and APHA is not registered, proof of parentage verification thru UC Davis will be required. They will be mouthed prior to race entry and approval or denial of entry will be at the discretion of The Breeders Challenge with no refund should the horse show to be older than the disclosed age.

4. Offspring must be enrolled in The Breeders Challenge to qualify for race entry.

5. Offspring may not have competed for any financial compensation prior to their announced futurity season beginning November 15th of the preceding year. Failure to comply will result in disqualification.

6. Offspring substitutions are permitted for the qualifier races. They must be declared in writing prior to office check-in of race entry should they differ from the original entry designation. A $100.00 substitution fee will be incurred.

7. Offspring substitutions are not permitted for the final race. The qualified offspring will be the only approved horses to compete.

8. Rider substitutions are permitted for the qualifier races. They must be declared in writing prior to office check-in of race entry should they differ from the original entry designation. A $100.00 substitution fee will be incurred.

9. Rider substitutions are permitted for the final race, the qualified horse may not be substituted. They must be declared in writing prior to office check-in on race entry should they differ from the original entry designation. A $100.00 substitution fee will be incurred.

10. Offspring Futurity runs may be rolled over into the Open 4D qualifier so long as the entry is paid prior to the offspring running. Should offspring be paid into both the Futurity and Open 4D, they will run in the Futurity.

11. Late entries will be allowed per the discretion of the hosting Producer's rulings. Late entries will be last in the draw and incur a late fee penalty of $100.00 due prior to race start.

12. Check In will be per the discretion of the hosting Producer. All rulings in place by Producer will be adhered to by Breeders Challenge contestants. Failure to comply will result in disqualification.

13. A Qualifier Entry Slot may be sold up to 14 business days preceding the race should a discrepancy arise with the entered offspring or rider. The completed and signed form for Slot Sales must be emailed or mailed to The Breeders Challenge. The applicable rules and guidelines apply to the purchaser of the slot. The Breeders Challenge is not responsible for the transaction between buyer and seller, no refund or discount will be provided to either party.

14. Entry Scratches are allowed for entry fee rollover toward a future event with a signed veterinary statement 48 hours in advance of race start. A $100.00 penalty will be assessed to each scratch.

15. All entries are final. No discount or refund of any kind will be provided.

Finale Semi Finals

1. All qualified Semi Finalists will compete with 2 opportunities for Finale advancement. The Semi Finals payout will be $25,000.00 added to each Go Round with a $500.00 entry fee that applies to both Go Rounds ($250.00 to each Go Round). Payout will be a 1D / 2D split paying 10 holes deep in each D with a .6 second split. The 1D will pay 60% of the 80% payout and the 2D will pay 40% of the 80% payout.

This ruling goes into effect for the 2025 season. The entry fee of $500.00 will be optional to contestants for this year, effective 2026 it will be mandatory. Contestants who elect to NOT pay the Semi Finals entry fee will run for their Finale Advancement but will not be eligible for any payout in the Semi Finals.

- Contestants may elect to run in BOTH go rounds, Go Round 1, or Go Round 2. If a contestant intends to draw out of either Go Round, they must do so 1 hour prior to race start time with the office.
- Go Round 1 - the fastest 15 teams will advance to The Breeders Challenge Finals. Should a team qualify in Go Round 1, they do not have to run in Go Round 2 but may do so if they paid the entry fee and elect to run for payouts. Draw order will be random.
 - Drag every 3 runners and Big Drag every 30 runners.
- Go Round 2 - the fastest 15 teams will advance to The Breeders Challenge Finals.
 - Draw order will be REVERSE order of Go Round 1.

- Drag every 3 runners and Big Drag every 30 runners.
2. Should a team qualify in each Go Round, their slowest advancing time will be dropped and the next fastest team will qualify for The Breeders Challenge Finale.

Qualifier Races

1. Rider must provide The Breeders Challenge with their Association Amateur Card with entry to race. Rider understands and agrees to the terms associated herein qualifying and holding an amateur card. Should a rider be found to be in non-compliance with the terms of their amateur status, they will be disqualified. Rider will have 14 business days from receipt of disqualification to return 100% of prize moneys, prizes, and awards to The Breeders Challenge for redistribution to eligible members.
 2. Rider may not receive nor have received any monetary compensation for riding or training horses for the outside public.
 3. Riders must be 18 years of age or older. Riders under 18 years of age are ineligible for the Amateur Derby. As AQHA Amateur Status is for 19 years of age and older, 18 year olds will be eligible to compete so long as they sign the Amateur Status waiver agreeing to abide by the terms and conditions therein.
 4. Rider must own the offspring they enter. Proof of LLC, Inc., Ranch Name, or Familial Relation must be provided if the riders name is not designated on the registration papers. The payout will be a two go round aggregate paying 10 holes deep straight pay. The aggregate will pay 70% of the 80% payout.
- Go Round 1 – The fastest 5 teams will advance to The Breeders Challenge Finale. Go Round will pay 5 holes deep at 15% of the 80% payout.

- Go Round 2 – The fastest 5 teams will advance to The Breeders Challenge Finale. Go Round will pay 5 holes deep at 15% of the 80% payout.

Should a team qualify in each Go Round, their slowest advancing time will be dropped and the next fastest team will qualify for The Breeders Challenge Finals. Should a team have qualified at a previous qualifier, they will be ineligible to secure a qualification spot on the same horse at a later qualifier.

5. Offspring that are 5 – 8 years of age may compete. A copy of the offspring registration papers including the backside must be on file with The Breeders Challenge prior to race entry. All AQHA and APHA offspring must be registered to compete. In the event enrolled offspring outside of AQHA and APHA is not registered, proof of parentage verification thru UC Davis will be required. They will be mouthed prior to race entry and approval or denial of entry will be at the discretion of The Breeders Challenge with no refund should the horse show to be older than disclosed age.

6. Offspring must be enrolled in The Breeders Challenge to qualify for race entry.

7. Offspring may not have competed for any financial compensation prior to their announced futurity season beginning November 15th of the preceding year. Failure to comply will result in disqualification.

8. Offspring substitutions are not permitted for the qualifier races unless the terms of Amateur Status apply to Offspring Substitution. They must be declared in writing prior to office check-in of race entry should they differ from the original entry designation. A $100.00 substitution fee will be incurred.

9. Offspring substitutions are not permitted for the final race. The qualified offspring and rider combination will be the only approved teams to compete.

10. Rider substitutions are not permitted for the qualifier races unless the terms of Amateur Status apply to Rider Substitution. They must be declared in writing prior to office check-in of race entry should they differ from the original entry designation. A $100.00 substitution fee will be incurred.

11. Rider substitutions are not permitted for the final race. The qualified offspring and rider combination will be the only approved teams to compete.

12. Offspring Derby runs may be rolled over into the Open 4D qualifier so long as the entry is paid prior to the offspring running. Should offspring be paid into both the Derby and Open 4D, they will run in the Derby.

1. Late entries will be allowed per the discretion of the hosting Producer's rulings. Late entries will be last in the draw and incur a late fee penalty of $100.00 due prior to race start.
2. Check In will be per the discretion of the hosting Producer. All rulings in place by Producer will be adhered to by Breeders Challenge contestants. Failure to comply will result in disqualification.

13. A Qualifier Entry Slot may be sold up to 14 business days preceding the race should a discrepancy arise with the entered offspring or rider. The completed and signed form for Slot Sales must be emailed or mailed to The Breeders Challenge. The applicable rules and guidelines apply to the purchaser of the slot. The Breeders Challenge is not responsible for the transaction between buyer and seller, no refund or discount will be provided to either party.

14. Entry Scratches are allowed for entry fee rollover toward a future event with a signed veterinary statement 48 hours in advance of race start. A $100.00 penalty will be assessed to each scratch.

15. All entries are final. No discount or refund of any kind will be provided.

16. Amateur status complaints must be filed in writing and proof of foul play must be documented. Any false accusations toward another member will not be tolerated and the accuser shall incur the same disciplinary action or ruling by Breeders Challenge should they fail to provide accurate proof of such accusation. Any disciplinary action or ruling by Breeders Challenge will be considered final.

17. Amateur Derby entries may also enter the Open Derby. Contestants may run as a single entry and roll their times to both the Amateur Derby and Open Derby or they may run as a double entry into The Amateur Derby and Open Derby to have their times be designated separately.

3. The Breeders Challenge will issue checks to Owners, Nominators, and Stallion Owners within 1 business week following conclusion of the Qualifier, Challenger Race, and Championship Finale. A current years W9 MUST be on file prior to check issuance.
4. It is the Members responsibility to update Breeders Challenge of any address changes prior to event entry or check issuance. Owners, Nominators, and Stallion Owners receiving checks must adhere to guidelines for prompt payment.
5. The Finale High Stakes Race will be open to any contestant and is not exclusive to Breeders Challenge enrolled horses. As the race will be run in accordance with Breeders Challenge rulings for the Finale; drag every 3 contestants, big drag every 30 contestants, it will allow for Finale Contestants to enter by paying a $500.00 entry fee to roll their Semi Finals Time/s and Finale Time/s to the Slot Race. Each run = 1 entry fee. In addition to the entry fee and payback of 90%, it will include $5,000.00 added money and awards. It will be run in a 2D format with a full second split.
